Instructions

I. Criteria For Selection

1. To be eligible for this award, the vocational agriculture teacher shall have worked three or more years with the agricultural department at the time of the Annual Convention of the Tennessee Cattlemen's Association at which the award is made.

2. An FFA adviser may win the award only one time.

3. The award shall be based on educational programs and activities related to the FFA beef cattle project conducted in the current and previous two calendar years.

4. The FFA adviser should have a record of good performance related to his or her overall Extension Program.

5. Major factors in selection of the Extension Agent will be:

   5.A. Enrollment in the FFA Beef Project and the participation of county FFA members in county, district and state events.

   5.B. Educational activities and events related to FFA Beef Project.

   5.C. County mass media educational program related to FFA Beef Project. This program should utilize mass media available in the county.

   5.D. Involvement and utilization of volunteer leaders in FFA Beef Project Groups.

   5.E. Interaction and/or involvement of other organizations, business groups, commodity groups and professionals that have cooperated in executing programs in the FFA Beef Project.

II. Procedure For Selection

A state committee will select the state winner.

Entries may also be submitted via e-mail to Dr. Troy Rowan at the following address:

trowen@utk.edu

The Deadline for Nominations is December 15, 2026

The committee will select the state winner from the nominees submitted from the three Extension Regional Offices. The Regional Program Leaders for Agriculture in each Region will be responsible for coordinating selection of one nominee and forwarding this nomination to the state committee. Forward to trowan@utk.edu

Any person or county cattlemen's association or livestock association may nominate any qualified FFA advisor.

The attached nomination form will be used.

III. Award

The award will be recognition and a suitable plaque that will be presented at the Tennessee Cattlemen's Association Annual Convention. Each nominee is expected to attend the annual convention of the Tennessee Cattlemen's Association being held January 22, 2027 at the Williamson County Expo center in Franklin.

NOTE: Letters of recommendation would add to the support of the nominee but are not required.
